

from the staff at Ridgeland. We hope you have a fun and safe holiday with friends and family by your side!

NO Highlights NEXT WEEK (December 24).

NO 9AM Life Classes or KOW Sunday, December 27th.

Christmas Eve Service

All of us dream of the perfect Christmas, but often the day we all long for falls short of our expectations. And we're left wondering if our dreams will ever come true.

Join us Christmas Eve at 6PM as we unwrap the gift of forgiveness found in Jesus Christ. Together we will realize that the perfect Christmas is much more than just a one-day dream; it's something that God wants us to experience every single day of the year.

Step into Christmas

Dec. 24 * 6PM * RCC

It's a time of anticipation and potential.

It's a season we take time to reconnect with friends, reunite with family and reflect on what truly matters.

As you look to this special time, we invite you to make Ridgeland Community Church a part of your Christmas tradition.

Bring your friends, your family, and anyone you know to Step into Christmas. Discover the greatest gift of all!

special business meeting:

Members: we are holding a special business meeting on Monday, December 28, at 7PM in the sanctuary

1. for the Elders to discuss the vision and plans of the RCC, including having Bob Stoddard serve as interim pastor
2. formation by RCC Members of a pastoral search committee
3. a vote by RCC members concerning changes to the Budget, including proposed severance for Pastor Dan and compensation for the interim pastor
4. such other matters as may be raised by the Membership at such meeting.

Although part of the meeting will be informational, and input from everyone is encouraged, Members are particularly encouraged to attend because there will be items that require formal votes by Members.

Prayer Items If you would like a prayer request included, please email Bekah Bush at bbush@ridgelandchurch.org.

Prayers

- Beth Floro– Beth came through her surgery well; pray for a swift and complete recovery!

Ministry

- Spiritual wisdom & strength for our elders & trustees.
- Consistent community impact through our Healthy Hearts ministry.
- God's leading of our Children's Ministry teachers and for kids eager to learn God's Word.
- Continued impact of our Cross-Cultural Ministry.
- Effectively reaching out with the Gospel message.
- For the new Children's Ministry Director, Alicia Hartlaub, as she leads the children of RCC.
